P1: Time dependence of gel formation in lyotropic nematic liquid crystals: from hours to weeks.

M. Dombrowski, M. Herbst, N. Preisig, C. Stubenrauch, F. Giesselmann

P2: Micro-Scale Study of the Light-Induced Self-Assembly Mechanism of a Molecular Gelator by Fluorescence Microscopy.

L. Sangermano, S. Spagnoli, C. de Vet, C. Davies, G. Raffy, A. Del Guerzo

P3: Short Peptide Supramolecular Architectures as Stereoselective Aldolase Mimics.

L. Esteve-Nebot, B. Escuder

P4: Functional DNA Materials for Data Storage and Information Processing.

A. E. Can, M. M. H. Shojib, I. D. Stoev

P5: Gelatin-based Porous Hydrogel Foams for Controlled Adsorption and Release of Drugs.

R. R. Benedix, O. A. Abdelaziz, A. Southan, C. Stubenrauch

P6: Degradability of Surfactants Containing Ester Groups.

A. Hejazi Almidani, J. Müller, C. Bittner, T. Sottmann

P7: Gelatin-Based Hydrogel Particles for Controlled Sorption and Release of Metoprolol

O. A. Abdelaziz, R. R. Benedix, T. Luda, A. Southan, C. Stubenrauch

P8: Sodium Alginate Hydrogels Embedded with Copper Co-Crystals and Zinc Oxide Nanoparticles for Advanced Wound Healing Applications.

R. Devi, N. Singh
